

PLAY SYNOPSIS

Theatre 2017

Fred and Jane

A bond of friendship between two nuns of unlikely pairing is interrupted by their contrived separation with serious consequences. A poignant testament to the power of friendship by Sebastian Barry.

Playwright: Sebastian Barry

Presented by: Milwaukee Irish Arts

Little Gem

Cleverly woven monologues from three generations of women in the same family track year in their lives. Their adventures in love, sex, birth, death and salsa classes enthrall in this revealing, poignant and very funny play by contemporary playwright Elaine Murphy.

Playwright: Elaine Murphy

Lovers:Winners

Brian Friel's Lovers:Winners will puzzle audiences... or will it? Mag and Joe are to be married in three weeks. Mag is pregnant. Despite their differences, they appear to be a typically enthusiastic young couple passionate about their lives and looking forward to their future together. Yet, we are riveted by two dispassionate, impersonal commentators who detail for us the circumstances of the young lovers' deaths... what gives?

Playwright: Brian Friel

Presented by: Bangor Drama Club, County Down, Ireland

A Galway Girl

Spanning 35 year of marriage, the lives of Masie and Dermot are recounted through anecdotes both humorous and tragic. Their lives seem wasted, yet a muted final gesture of affection conveys an enduring love despite the suffering years of bickering.

Playwright: Geraldine Aron

Sister B's Bingo Bonanza

Holy Hilarity! Give 'em a dime and this traveling trio just might save your soul. Join Sister B and friends for one hilarious show, the funniest bingo game in town. You will have fun... or else! (seems no one can get enough - a perennial Irish Fest favorite)

Presented by: McHale Productions
